We live in a world today where the standards of Christianity are not always upheld. Published by Malana J is a company that stands on God's Word!

What to Expect

It is our goal and truest heart's desire that we publish your book project with excellence. For starters, we give every client the individual time that they need to speak with us during our scheduled consultations. After you sign your contract it's not like you will never hear from us again. We don't work on more than 3 projects at a time. We know all of our clients by name, you are not just a number!

Before We Get Started

You will receive a confidentiality contract stating that your manuscript will be looked at for pricing purposes only. We do this to customize your publishing package and pricing. If you choose not to work with Published by Malana J, your manuscript will be deleted. All payment options and publishing packages will be explained and invoiced before starting your project.

The Process

Step 1: Submit your manuscript, sign contract, 1st payment and then we get started on your book project. A non-refundable deposit of $250 is required to start your book project.

Step 2: All proofreading and edits are completed and sent back for your approval.

Note: Please review all edits prior to starting the formatting stage. It is okay to take as long as you need. Once the formatting stage for your book begins, additional charges will be added if there are any changes to the book content.

Step 3: Phone consultation to discuss the interior look of the book and final book sizing decisions. We talk about any special pages you want in your book.

Step 4: Formatting your book!

Step 5: After we format your book, we will send it back to you for approval before we go to the publishing process for e-book and print.
